Forensic Science
Week #1 (Semester 2)
Continue to check your progress at Wardisiani.com, Blackboard and Power School.

Monday:
- Class Expectations for the 2nd Semester
- Seating Chart (Updated)
- Writing Prompt: “What am I going to do differently this semester?”
- Assignment: Writing Prompt is due on Blackboard by Wednesday @ 11:59PM.

Tuesday:
- In-Class Review of Laboratory Procedures
- Experiment: Glass Density A
- Wrap-Up / Report Out
- Assignment: Experimental Write-Up due on Wednesday.

Wednesday:
- Bell-Ringer
- Lecture: Glass Density and Fracture (Cont’d)
- Question / Answer Session

Thursday:
- In-Class Review of Experimental Procedures
- Experiment: Glass Density B
- Wrap-up / Report Out
- Assignment: Experimental Write-Up due on Friday.

Friday:
- Criminal Minds
- Evidence Identification and Collection
- Assignment: Complete Journal Activity (Located on Blackboard). Due Sunday @ 11:59PM.

Objectives for Week #1

- List and explain forensic methods for comparing glass fragments (HS-LS1-1)
- Understand how to examine glass fractures to determine the direction of impact for a projectile. (HS-LS1-7)