Forensic Science

“POW” Week #3, Semester #2

Continue to check your progress on Blackboard, PowerSchool and Wardisiani.com

Monday:
- No School
- MLK Day!

Tuesday:
- Bell-Ringer
- Lecture: Forensic Toxicology (Cont’d)
- Case Study: Toxic Agents

Wednesday:
- In-Class Review of Laboratory Procedures
- Experiment: Chromatography of Dyes
- Wrap Up / Report Out
- Assignment: Experimental Write-Up

Thursday:
- Bell-Ringer
- Lecture: Forensic Toxicology (Cont’d)
- Case Study:

Friday:
- Toxicology Quiz
- Week #3 Journal Entry due on Sunday @ 11:59PM.

---

Objectives for Week #3

Relate the precautions to be taken to properly preserve blood in order to analyze its alcohol content. (HS-LS1-2)

Understand the significance of implied-consent laws and the Schmerber v. California case to traffic enforcement. (HS-LS1-2)

Describe techniques that forensic toxicologists used to isolate and identify drugs and poisons. (HS-LS1-2)

Appreciate the significance of finding a drug in human tissue and organ to assessing impairment. (HS-LS1-2)